Volunteers Needed

Academic Decathlon Competitions are made possible by people, like you, who are willing to volunteer their time to become speech judges, interviewers, essay evaluators, and test room proctors. What you will get out of the deal is an affirmation of how wonderful our Arizona students really are. The future will seem a little brighter knowing these young people are there to help shape it. All volunteers will be trained the day of the events.

Below is a schedule of the events. You do not need to volunteer for the entire competition. Please email Anne Edelstein at azacdec@cox.net or call 602-263-5335 if you are interested in helping these hardworking students have a first class competition. More information will be mailed to you upon volunteering so please include your mailing address when you email or call me.
